Under him are 5 student officers, about 50 NCOs, both as teachers and pupils, and 200 men at a time. The men in this unit are organizationally under the artillery commands at Debrecen and Miskolc.

- 6. l Battalion is commanded by 1st Lieut. István Farkas, and has a strength of about 200 men. It has two batteries of four 76.2 mm. guns each, one battery of 120 mm. mortars. There are 12-15 machine pistols per battery.
- 7. 2 Battalion is commanded by a 1st Lieutenant whose name is not known. It has about 150 men, and has only two batteries of four 76.2 mm. guns.
- 8. 3 Battalion is commanded by 1st Lieutenant János Szuber. Numbers and organization like those of 2 Battalion.
- 9. The regiment is motorized, but the trucks are not attached to the batteries but operated from a central pool. The equipment consists of:

 Twenty four Dodge prime movers for the guns.

 Six G. M. C. three ton trucks.

 Two ZIS three ton trucks.

 Four Csepel three ton trucks.

 Eleven various armored cars, mostly Tatras.

 Twenty three motorcycles, mostly BMWs.
- 10. The regiment took no part in the maneuvers of 1951. It was at that time mainly a training unit for reserves. It was controlled by Soviet officers during its firing exercises, and several Chinese officers were present as observers.
- 11. Attached sketch map shows the Gusef barracks, formerly cavalry barracks.

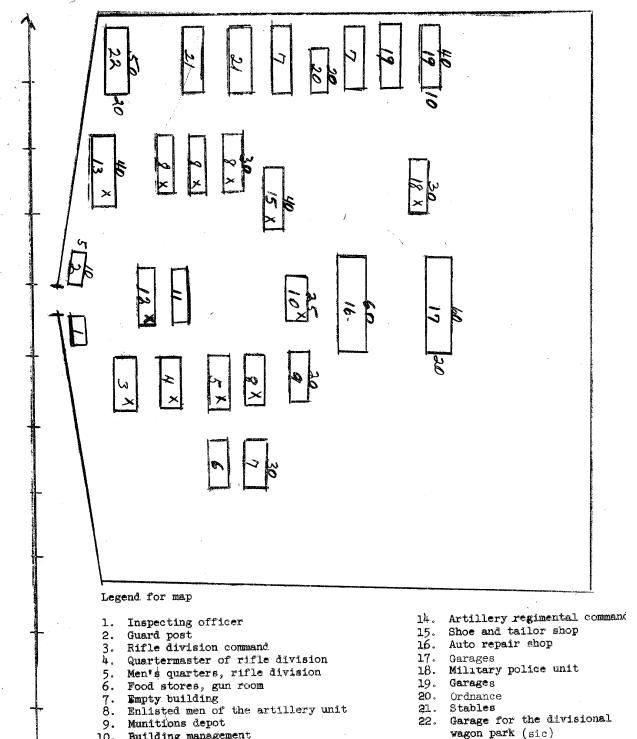

Enc. Sketch map of Gusef barracks at Nyiregyhaza, 1 page.

Remarks: Buildings marked with an "X" are two-story structures.

The numbers outside the squares indicate dimensions in meters.
